

Application

You will complete a short application form which helps us make sure you are eligible for the programme and role.

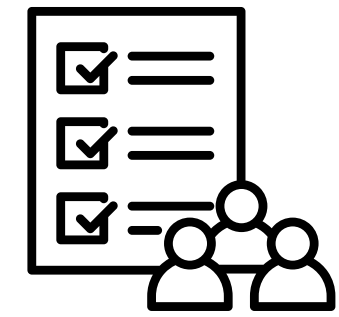

Online Assessment - Bryq

This assessment gives us insight into your numerical, verbal, logic, and attention to detail skills. You will also complete a personality profile that considers your personality traits and values, to identify alignment to key traits required for success in the role you have applied to.

Screening Call

A brief conversation with our TA team to further understand your interest in the role you have applied to and Blick Rothenberg.

Assessment Day

Depending on the role you have applied to, you will be invited to an in person assessment day or interview at our London office.
