

Pension

At a glance: Pension salary sacrifice

The 'what?'

- Pension salary sacrifice is an arrangement which benefits both the employee and employer
- Arrangement works by employee agreeing to reduce pay in return for increased employer pension contributions

Framework

Successful implementation includes the following five states:

- Notification to employees
- Design of the arrangement
- Communicate to employees
- Implementation
- HMRC clearance

National Insurance Contributions saving

Employee pension contributions (per annum)	Indicative employee/ employer NIC saving
£10,000	£2,580
£20,000	£5,160
£50,000	£12,900
£100,000	£25,800
£500,000	£129,000
£1,000,000	£258,000

The 'why?'

- NIC savings (annual and recurring)
- HMRC-compliant
- Mandatory increase in pension contributions year-on-year - adds to the savings
- April 2019 increase to 3% for employers and 5% employees for employees (minimum total 8% contribution)

Blick Rothenberg

- Over 20 years of experience in implementing arrangement
- Able to be flexible in the level of assistance we provide full service offering to 'sounding board' for any aspect of the five stages.
- 100% success with HMRC clearance applications

For information, please visit our website.

Payslips - 20% tax band

The key element of a successful pension salary sacrifice ("PSS") is how the benefits are communicated and presented to employees. Below, we provide an illustrative example of payslips before and after PSS, demonstrating savings for employee/employer.

Before

Description	Rate	Units due	Amount (£)	This year (£)
Salary			1,500
Total			1,500
Tax			102.20
National Insurance			95.76
Pension contribution			60.00
Employer's NI 110.12
Net pay			1,242.02

After

Description	Rate	Units due	Amount (£)	This year (£)
Salary			1,500
Salary sacrifice			(75)
Total			1,425
Tax			87.20
National Insurance			86.76
Employer's NI 99.77
Net pay			1,250.04

Andy Timpson
Partner, Employment tax

+44 (0)20 7544 8899
andy.timpson@blickrothenberg.com

Blick Rothenberg
16 Great Queen Street
Covent Garden
London WC2B 5AH
+44 (0)20 7486 0111
email@blickrothenberg.com

©January 2019. Blick Rothenberg Limited. All rights reserved. While we have taken every care to ensure that the information in this publication is correct, it has been prepared for general information purposes only for clients and contacts of Blick Rothenberg and is not intended to amount to advice on which you should rely. Blick Rothenberg Audit LLP is authorised and regulated by the Financial Conduct Authority to carry on investment business and consumer credit related activity.